Re: Letter Motion Request for Extension of Time in Doeman Music Group Media & Photography LLC v. DistroKid LLC, No. 23-cv-4776-MMG-RFT (S.D.N.Y.)

Dear Judge Tarnofsky:

I represent Plaintiff Doeman Music Group Media & Photography LLC (“Doeman”) in the above-captioned case. Pursuant to your Individual Practices Paragraph I(E) and to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 6(b)(1)(A), and on behalf of my client, I hereby move and respectfully request a further 9-day Friday, April 11, 2025, to file the supplemental submissions regarding the quantum of damages requested by this Honorable Court in its February 24, 2025, Order. Dkt.64.

Since the time of the Court's prior extension, my client has gathered significant materials and is essentially complete with respect to lost-streaming damages, but is still collecting some more and still intends to obtain a declaration from a local club promoter who is expected to declare / testify regarding why the takedown had such an impact upon the ability of Doeman to book live performances. Moreover, I have had significant demands in other case work, including cases described in the last extension request and have been dealing with severe headaches that have significantly impact my ability to work, including today. (1) The additional submissions were ordered to be due on March 5, 2025. Dkt.64. (2) There was one prior extension. (3) The adversary has not appeared and is in default. Finally, I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing factual statements are true and correct.
